

Grape Varieties Grown in the Fair Oaks Horticulture Center Vineyard

Variety	Seeds?	Color	Ripens	Suitability for Home Use	Spur or Cane Pruned	Berry Size	Comments
Autumn Black	No	Black	Sept-Oct	Good	Spur	Large	Mellow, thin-skinned, sweet
Beauty Seedless	No	Black	mid-July	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Spicy, sweet flavor
Black Emerald	No	Black	May-June	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Juicy, very tasty, firm, thin skin
Black Monukka	Hollow	Black	early August	Excellent	Cane	Medium	Delicious, popular black grape
Black Rose	Yes	Black	September	OK	Spur	Huge	Thin skin; very sweet, prone to rot
Blush Seedless	No	Red	late August	Very good	Spur	Medium	Patented; limited availability of vines
Centennial Seedless	Trace	Lt. red	late July	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Firm, tasty
Concord Seedless	No	Purple	mid Sept.	Excellent	Cane	Medium	Juicy, sweet concord flavor without the seeds
Dawn Seedless	No	White	July	Very good	Spur	Medium	Good flavor, skin crisp
Fiesta	No	White	late July	Excellent	Cane	Medium	Tasty greenish-white grape
Flame Seedless	No	Red	July	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Makes good raisins; birds love, too
Italia	Yes	White	early August	Excellent	Spur	Large	Unique flavor, very good
Muscat of Alexandria	Yes	White	early August	OK	Spur	Large	Great flavor, easily sunburned
Muscat, Diamond	No	Green	August	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Great flavor, most popular grape
Perlette	No	White	July	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Great flavor; may rot if not thinned
Princess	No	White	Sept-Oct	Good	Cane	Large	Nice sweet flavor
Ruby Seedless	No	Red	August	Good	Spur	Medium	Tasty late variety, good raisins
Suffolk Red	No	Red	July-Aug	Excellent	Spur	Medium	Sweet, good for desserts and jelly
Summer Royal	No	Red	August	Good	Spur	Medium	Very sweet.
Thomcord	No	Blue-Black	July-Aug	Good	Cane	Medium	Cross between Thompson Seedless and Concord
Thompson Seedless	No	White	August	Excellent	Cane	Sm-Med	Most popular table and raisin variety
Tokay	Yes	Red	Aug-Sept	Very good	Spur	Large	Prone to sunburn, unique flavor